Enter the actual preparation the Coppa del Chianti Classico that with 2010 comes to the 31 edition with a continuous growth in recent years has led the race to be the most important event for speed uphill for historic cars in Europe. Confirmed the validity of the FIA Historic Hill Climb Championship, the Italian Championship for the sector and the Challenge Salita Piloti Autostoriche, make this an event not to miss time trial for pilots at the end of an intense season crown in the race in "Terra di Siena" victory in Class, in Group, Championship or at least get on the top step of the podium and put his name among the winners in the Coppa del Chianti Classico. The Chianticup racing goes into the preparation and logistics of the competition will be the path best to ensure functionality and safety in the Coppa del Chianti Classico. A program that provides for the Friday, October 1 scrutineering starting at 14.30 to 19.15 to continue until Saturday 2 from 8.00 to 10.30. The tests are sporting techniques will be held in the former mill Niccolai in Castellina in Chianti, which again opens its doors to the race of Siena to allow better performance on both tests. Official practice will start at 14.00 on Saturday, October 2 with the departure from classical and Quercegrossa Mill Race Sunday, October 3 beginning at 10:00 am will be the dominant event of the three day event. A path unchanged in its shape and length with small but increasingly important initiatives aimed at improving the safety of race and accommodation, emergency vehicles and emergency positioned in the focal points of the route until the park closed. Organize an event is increasingly challenging for any sport and in particular sports car inspections and controls provided give the impression the race for a whole year to reach the three days of time trial with a series of commitments and means that men make the final two months of laborious preparation a countdown but full of desire to do the best to achieve ultimate success. Not have to wait pilots, attendants and the public in an area such as Chianti with its beautiful scenery and the renowned quality of food and wines for performing 31 ^ Coppa del Chianti Classico, remembering that all information on race can be found on www.chianticup.it
