Thirty days to the Coppa del Chianti Classico that is at its thirty-first edition. From October 1 to 3 p.v. Castellina in Chianti is the center of attraction for sports car enthusiasts who will again attend the hillclimb that from the Molino of Quercegrossa reaches in 8.200 km. along the SR. 222 Chiantigiana to Croce Fiorentina. A race for historic cars that reached the summit in uphill races in Europe and in Italy with over 200 cars to start in the last year and confirmed the validity of the FIA Historic Hill Climb Championship and the Italian Championship of the Mountain . The Chianticup racing, organizer of the event, hopes to confirm the participation numbers in previous years to give birth to a race that the riders have always looked with great interest for its fast and challenging track and the places where it takes place, known worldwide for the brand of Chianti Classico are always very fascinating culture and tourism. The public has always expected in October to attend this time trial that became a fixed point in the demonstrations in the territory and the world of sports car and that every year brings thousands of people along the road to see the steps of the car and applaud the sporting events. A direct radio and time online on Internet through a link with the site www.chianticup.it will follow the test and the race following the minute the pilot climbs. A complete system to follow the race in all its moments and after practice Saturday, October 2 beginning at 02.00 p.m. hours will conduct the race Sunday, October 3 at 10,00 a.m.
